

100 DOLLARS REWARD.—Absconded from the service of Mr. Wm. Robinson, in Georgetown, District of Columbia, on Monday, the 12th instant, a Negro Boy named BROOKS, the property of Mary T. Dade, of Alexandria. Brooks is in the eighteenth year of his age; slender make; has a mild countenance, and a scar on his right leg, produced by a wound received when a child; his clothes are not recollected. I will give twenty dollars for his apprehension, if taken and secured in the District of Columbia; fifty dollars if fifty miles therefrom; and the above reward, of one hundred dollars, if a greater distance; and all reasonable charges paid, if delivered to me in Alexandria, or secured in jail so that I get him again.
